It was a lively scrimmage when the police of the Mercer street station came. The boys knew the police were coming and while the police went up the boys went, helter skelter, down the stairs. Out of the 400 youths only 23 were caught and of these seven were sent to the Children's Court, by reason of their age. The sixteen others were haled before Magistrate Butts in Jefferson Mar-

Fred Longman, janitor of the Univereity Building, appeared to make the complaint, but he was unable to say to Magistrate Butts that this particular boy did any particular thing although he was able to tell how much the aggregation did to things in the building.
The Magistrate decided that a lecture would be better than punishment and he proceeded to deliver it.

OVERSTUDY DRIVES YOUNG WOMAN INSANE

Lizzie Kohn Runs Screaming in Harlem Streets and Is Taken to Bellevue.

Miss Lizzie Kohn, who has bee studying to be a trained nurse, became demented early to-day and ran screaming through the fire lines at Lexington avenue and East One Hundred and Twelfth street. She was stopped by Sergt. Dick and Policeman O'Brien and is now in Bellevue Hos-

Miss Kohn is twenty-eight years old and lives with her parents at No. 20 East One Hundred and Tenth street. She has been taking a course at the Suydenham Hospital, No. 341 East One Hundred and Sixteenth street, and it is presumed that too much studying is the cause of her sudden derangeis the cause of her sudden derangement.

At 2 o'clock this morning she left the hospital in spite of remonstrances from the other nurses and went to her parents' home. There she remained a few hours and suddenly ran out, wearing no hat or cloak and did not stop until she reached the six-story tenement at No. 154 East One Hundred and Twelfth street, which was after. The police had great difficulty in quieting her before she was taken to the hospital.

IS YOUR FLAT COLD? THEN DON'T PAY RENT.

If You Do You Will Not Be Able to Recover Damages, Supreme Court Holds.

If you tsay in your flat and freeze because the landlord doesn't provide steam heat enough to melt the frost cover damages. That is, in effect, what the Appellate Term of the Supreme Court, Justices Gildersleve, Seabury and Gerard, said to-day, reversing the judgment of a Municipal District Court giving damages to Lawrence S. Jackson from his landlady, Caroline T. Paterno. Jackson had a writen lease of his flat expiring on March last. He paid the rent and remained till the end of the term.

The District Justice found that there The District Justice found that there was inadequate heat, and Jackson would have been justified in moving out and would have had a good defense to an action for the rent. But he didn't move out, and by staying he made an implied assent to the conditions. He might have refused to pay his rent, and the landlady would have been unable to collect it till she supplied the heat. If you stay in an loy flat and pay your rent and hope to secure damages you will have to keep a record of the colds caught, note down each rheumatic twinge, and furnish vouchers for doctor's bills and medicine required.
